

Assistant Farm Managers x 2

- Well Established and Diverse Agricultural Group
- Hay and Coonamble Locations
- $80k to $90k Base + Super + Good Housing Provided

This well established and diverse agricultural group is seeking two strong assistant farm manager for two key locations- Hay and Coonamble.

The primary duty is to support the Farming Manager in the production of crops. Also to assist with the supervision of permanent/casual staff and contractors. Duties include all aspects of the cropping program from equipment preparation, through to sowing, fertilizing, chemical application, watering, crop monitoring and harvest. Other duties include preparation of new layouts, ensure property and equipment is maintained, assist with monthly management reporting, WH&S responsibilities, and other ad hoc projects.

Excellent interpersonal and communication skills are required to build effective working relationships both within and outside the organisation.

You will have a strong understanding of the agronomic requirements for basic crop development milestones. Capable of supervising all facets of the cropping program. Ability to calibrate seed and fertilizer applicators and experienced in the repair and maintenance of plant and equipment. Able to supervise staff/contractors in crop production activities. Proficient in record keeping Demonstrated organisational skills and attention to detail. Willingness to adopt a hands on approach and a desire to improve in knowledge and skill.

Please call Jeremy Gibb on 0438 398 327 or email jgibb@peopleone.com.au for further information.