

Position: Junior Stock & Station Agent

About Us:

Established in 1973 Bowyer & Livermore is a leading Stock & Station Agency in the Central Tablelands of NSW.

We seek to provide our clients with a professional, reliable and personal service. We strive to achieve the best possible results for our clients to meet their agricultural goals.

The Position:

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a Junior Stock & Station Agent. We are looking for an individual who is a self-starter and who is keen to start their career in agriculture with our livestock agency business.

Based out of our Bathurst office you will work along-side our agents assisting them with day to day duties including working at the weekly cattle and sheep markets held at CTLX (Carcoar), drafting and assessing stock for paddock & Auctions Plus sales, and general office & administration duties.

About you:

Do you have the drive to become a successful livestock agent, and possess the following attributes?

- ✓ Effective communication and interpersonal skills, both written & oral
- ✓ Self-motivated and enthusiastic
- ✓ A keen interest in the livestock industry
- ✓ Able to work both independently or as part of a team
- ✓ Able to take initiative in problem solving, but also have the confidence to ask questions when required
- ✓ Take pride in your work and appearance
- ✓ Great literacy & numeracy skills
- ✓ Have the desire to build a long-term sales career in the livestock industry
- ✓ Hold a current Australian drivers licence

If the above sounds like you, we will provide you with on the job training where you will learn about what makes a successful Livestock Agent. The successful applicant will be given the opportunity to complete their Stock & Station agents licence through our business.

How to Apply:

Email your resume and a handwritten covering letter outlining your suitability for the position to livestock@bandl.com.au by 15/12/2017.
