

POSITION DESCRIPTION: International Meat Sales

LOCATION: Tamworth, NSW

A position is available to join a well-established, progressive meat export business. With multiple offices and a solid client base, the business is looking for an experienced sales professional to manage and grow sales in the greater Asia region.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Manage accounts domestically and abroad, specifically in the greater Asia region.
- Build and maintain a strong customer base.
- Identification and actioning of new sales opportunities.
- Work within a growing energetic team to achieve set targets.

CAPABILITIES

- Strong interpersonal and relationship building skills.
- Commercially astute.
- Willingness to travel abroad.
- Must be a self-starter with the ability to work independently but also be part of a high performing team.
- Tertiary qualification preferred but not essential.
- Desire to progress within the company as it continues to expand.

The remuneration package will reflect the person's experience and qualifications.

This position would suit someone with meat industry sales and marketing experience who wants to be part of a progressive and innovative team.

Please apply via email to recruitment@rtcfoods.com.au.