

Yeeda is a fully integrated red meat and tourism business, and is one of Western Australia's largest pastoral and beef companies located in the Kimberley region, located 40km out of Derby. We currently have the following positions available for start between the end of February to April. Remuneration will be dependent upon experience.

These positions, responsibilities and selection criteria are as follows –

HEAD STOCKPERSON

- Must have minimum of 3 years' experience in a similar role – head stockman/leading hand
- Experience in large scale cattle stations
- Leadership experience with ability to work without supervision
- Ability to keep clear and concise records
- Liaison on day to day basis with management
- Mechanical ability an advantage
- Welding ability
- Heavy machinery experience
- Road train licence would be handy
- 2 references required

STATIONHANDS/EXPERIENCED STOCKMEN/STOCKWOMEN

- Minimum 3 years' experience on large scale cattle stations
- Mustering
- Drafting – processing cattle
- Fencing
- Welding
- Two wheel and quad bike
- Must have a car licence
- Good work ethic
- 2 references required

Email your resume direct to – raquel@yeeda.com.au – indicating for which position you are applying.

For further information call our office on – 9192 5815.