

PARAWAY
PASTORAL CO.

LEADING OVERSEER COOINBIL STATION

Paraway's Cooinbil operation covers approximately 89,000 hectares in the Riverina district, NSW. The property joins over 35,000 Merino ewes, as well as running trade cattle.

We are seeking a reliable and self-motivated Leading Overseer to lead a small team and co-ordinate the day to day running of a Merino sheep breeding enterprise which has the carrying capacity of up to 120,000 DSE in the peak of the season.

This position will involve leading a small team with all aspects of livestock husbandry and property maintenance. Owning working dogs and confidence with motorbikes will be an advantage.

Reporting to the Station Manager, the successful applicant will need to demonstrate:

- excellent Merino sheep husbandry skills
- a sound understanding of pasture management
- effective communication and organisational skills
- basic business reporting and computer abilities
- a modern and diligent approach to WH&S

As part of the remuneration package, a comfortable 3-bedroom air-conditioned house is available. Coleambally is 46km from the front gate, which is serviced by a school bus.

Applicants must have Q Fever vaccination or be willing to be vaccinated prior to commencement.

Candidates wishing to apply should send an application letter addressing their suitability for the position, and a resume outlining their experience, to: employment@paraway.com.au
