

Stockperson/Leading Hand Couple Wanted for cattle station

Seeking a couple to work full time in an intensive grazing system in the Gascoyne area of WA. Using low stress stock handling and cattle management skills. Both positions are full time and include all aspects of station work including cattle work, maintenance of waters and fencing, operation and maintenance of station plant and mustering by bike assisting choppers, maintaining yards throughout property.

Responsibilities for the partner include but not limited to homestead upkeep, cooking during mustering and may also include assistance in tourism enterprise.

Experience required: Bore maintenance, competent in riding a motorbike, handling cattle, low stress stock handling, processing and cattle movements / logistics, machinery operator and mechanical knowledge. Mustering with choppers, buggies and bikes. Welding is favorable.

Seeking self-motivated, energetic, reliable individuals with integrity, good communication and leadership skills are essential with ability to liaise with all staffing levels. Applicants must have sober and clean habits and comply with OH&S.

References will be required. C Class license essential, truck experience preferable.

Above award rates salary offered.

For more information please email admin@ltwa.com.au