

Station Manager Portland Downs

The North Australian Pastoral Company Pty Limited (NAPCO) is an innovative Australian company that aims for excellence in all areas of its operations. The company runs a herd of approximately 200,000 cattle across a property portfolio of 14 cattle stations and an award-winning feedlot covering over 6.1 million hectares in Queensland and the Northern Territory.

NAPCO is seeking a Station Manager for Portland Downs.

Portland Downs is located 100km South-East of Longreach Qld, and is an aggregation of 247,000 ac.

It is the most recent addition to the NAPCO portfolio and it will be used by us to grow cattle out to a suitable weight to send through to backgrounding properties or NAPCO's Wainui Feedlot.

As Station Manager you will be required to have strong organisational skills, business acumen and the ability to lead a small and efficient team to run a large herd of cattle.

To be considered for this role you will have competency and ideally experience in -

- Managing regular turnoff of cattle, in-line with required specifications
- Low stress stock handling methods or quiet handling of stock, including weaner training
- Pasture Measuring and feed budgeting or willingness to adopt and learn these systems
- Staff management; including day to day leadership, training and developing staff
- Maintaining machinery, vehicles and infrastructure to a high standard
- Budgeting and working to a budget process (Operational and Capital Budgets)
- Monthly reporting, accurate record keeping and administration
- Proposing, costing and implementing quality property improvements to advance the overall efficiency of the operation

The successful applicant would ideally commence mid-June onwards.
