

Pen Riders

Opal Creek Feedlot

Conveniently located just 35 kms from Cecil Plains, Opal Creek has several opportunities for cattle pen riders and livestock hands. Reporting to the Livestock Manager, and being part of a team of around 20, you'll be able to build on your existing horsemanship skills and gain solid knowledge and experience about cattle handling and ACC's Intensive Feedlot operation.

With your own (vaccinated & certified) horses & tack, you'll be responsible for intensive cattle feedlot activities that include:

- Following procedures to ensure strict adherence to Workplace Health and Safety, Animal Welfare standards and Environmental obligations
- Understanding and monitoring cattle health and nutrition
- Identifying symptoms and providing recommended diagnosis
- Maintaining accurate records for cattle treatments and movements

With a genuine interest in working with cattle, ability to live onsite and work a 10/4 roster, the successful applicants must have:

- Own vaccinated & certified horses & tack (between 2 - 4 is ideal)
- Excellent horsemanship & cattle handling ability
- An ability to work successfully within a diverse team
- An ability to adhere to workplace health and safety requirements
- Commitment to animal welfare and quality standards
- Eagerness and ability to learn and understand intensive feedlot operations and agribusiness
- Be reliable and dependable with a mature outlook

This is an ideal role for applicants who are keen to learn, hardworking and dedicated with long term career aspirations within the industry. These roles offer stability, career progression and an opportunity to broaden and develop your skills and agribusiness knowledge with an industry leader.

You'll be rewarded with top conditions, above award wages & allowances, great team environment, private, air conditioned accommodation with own ensuite, your meals provided and your live-in costs are salary sacrificed.
