

Station Hand – Cattle

A station hand position has become available on a family owned property in the Central Highlands region of central QLD.

About you

- be physically fit
- possess an Australian Driver's Licence (manual) HC or HR preferable
- possess a QLD firearm's licence
- enjoy working with others as well as working alone at time
- be resilient and self-motivated
- have a commitment to working safely
- have cattle handling experience
- have clean and sober habits

About the job

The Station runs 10 000 head of cattle on 250,000 acres and is located 1.5hr south east of Emerald. Most weeks you'll work 5 days and get to have the weekends off.

- Mustering cattle
- Drafting and yard work
- Horse and livestock care
- Water maintenance
- Fencing & general property care
- Operation and maintenance of station plant, equipment and vehicles.

Comfortable accommodation is provided.

There is a position for a spouse or partner working around the Homestead.

As this is a permanent ongoing position, you must also demonstrate the right to work permanently in Australia.

To apply for this position email a full CV, including references and a cover letter to –

willw@bloxsom.com.au