

Senior Trader

Dunnett & Johnston Group is a large family owned independent meat import, export & wholesaling group with operations throughout Australia, as well as several international locations. An exciting opportunity exists for an experienced export meat trader, to join our team, at our Sydney head office.

Your responsibilities will include but not limited to:

- management of new & existing international clients
- the purchase & sale of export meat products
- risk assessment & debtor control of existing & new customers
- Work within a team environment
- identify new business opportunities

To be successful in this position you will need to possess the following skills:

- Extensive knowledge of the Meat Industry in an export trading role
- excellent negotiation/ communication skills
- work well within a close team environment
- energetic, highly motivated self-starter

If you feel ready to challenge yourself in this exciting role, please send your CV to the HR manager on HR@dunnett-johnston.com.au.

Applications close 27/7/18