

General Manager | Stockfeed

- Strong customer base.
- Idyllic North Queensland Location.
- Attractive package, generous bonus.

THE COMPANY

Our client based in Atherton, North Queensland and owned by local shareholders, is a well established and profitable stockfeed manufacturer with a stable customer base. They provide a diverse range of high quality livestock feed to the beef, dairy, horse, poultry and pig sectors.

THE ROLE

A vacancy has arisen for a General Manager to lead a team of around 16 and manage the business. The position will report to The Board.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Lead and oversee the day to day operations of the business including raw material procurement, stock management, production and customer service.
- Manage relationships with key stakeholders of the business including shareholders, customers, suppliers and employees.

REQUIREMENTS

- Prior experience in the management of a stockfeed manufacturing enterprise and/or demonstrated success in running a successful commercial business.
- Demonstrated experience in leading and managing a team.
- The ability to develop and maintain relationships.
- Superior interpersonal, communication and negotiation skills
- Knowledge or prior involvement in animal production in one or more sectors of the livestock industry and/or experience in grain or protein markets.

REMUNERATION

An attractive package will be negotiated with the successful applicant which will include a generous performance bonus.

TO APPLY

Send your application to resume@agri.com.au or call Brett Price on 02 9223 9944 for a confidential discussion about the role.