

FARM HAND

Our company is looking for a proactive and driven person with a passion for beef farming to join our team on our property in the Armidale/New England area of New South Wales.

In this position, the successful candidate will be involved in the day to day operational aspects of stock and pastoral management, assisting the farm overseer and other members of the team. The key objective being to maximise the productivity and profitability of the cattle on the property, without compromising plant condition, stock welfare or other staff.

Applicants must:

- Have cattle knowledge and experience
- Be able to operate basic farm machinery
- Carry out fencing and perform general property maintenance
- Be willing to work independently as well as part of a team
- Comply to WH & S policies and follow all animal welfare and husbandry standards
- Be well acquainted with the seasonal feed requirements of the key classes of stock in terms of the animal health requirements and the ever-changing feeding priorities.
