

Position Available- Livestock Manager

Iranda Beef has recently undergone a large scale expansion with a capacity of 17,500HD and home to modern feeding and cattle handling facilities. The feedlot also operates a cattle conditioning and backgrounding operation on the surrounding land. Iranda is located 15km north of the township of Tintinara, SA

The Livestock Manager, reporting to the Feedlot Operations Manager and will be responsible of a team of up to 12 staff. The position will suit a motivated individual looking to join an enthusiastic, fast paced team and environment

Key areas of responsibilities include

- Overall hands-on leadership of animal health and livestock processing teams
- Maintain and continually improve site animal health and welfare
- Ensuring animal health and performance targets are met
- Maintaining high level of department WHS and QA practices
- Planning weekly internal and external stock movements
- Liaising with external stakeholders
- Inventory control and data management

Preferred skills/ experience include

- Minimum 2 years' experience in the feedlot industry
- Proven leadership skills and experience
- Excellent communication skills and an ability to problem solve
- Sound horsemanship experience and ability
- Well established livestock handling skills
- Strong computer based experience

The successful applicant will need a positive attitude and ability to work as part of a team.
Access to suitable horses and tack will be an advantage

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated based on skill and experience level

Written applications including covering letter and resume should be sent to:

operations@iranda.com.au Attention: Thomas Green

Alternatively for a confidential discussion in relation to this opportunity please contact Tom on

0447 160 238

Applications Close: 07/12/2018