

The company is seeking a forward thinking, self-motivated Station Manager located in Central Queensland to lead the pastoral operations, driving business opportunity.

The property comprises and prides itself on commercial organic cattle, stub cattle & irrigated and dryland farming, supplying grains from zero chemical croplands and cattle grown on natural production systems pastures, forages and irrigated Leucaena.

You will be directly responsible for the planned and operational tasks of all pastoral resources including people, livestock, crops and property reporting into stakeholders.

The Station Manager is responsible for the day to day management of the farm, be accountable for maximising production and profitability in line with management plans and budgets.

Overseeing the maintenance on farming plant and equipment, Implementing and monitoring the improvements of ground cover, soils, weed control and water efficiency.

This role requires continuous evaluation and development of these assets, ensuring timeliness and efficiency of operations enhancing return on investment. The Station Manager will be required to think outside the square, be influential and encourage leadership and ownership amongst staff.

To be considered for this role applicant must have;

- A positive attitude
- Minimum 10 years' experience in Farm management
- Minimum 5 years' experience in cropping
- Strong leadership skills
- Qualifications in Agriculture
- Sound computer skills
- Ability to manage a team
- Excellent communication skills
- Practical experience in managing cattle on forage-based pastures
- Practical experience in rotational grazing irrigated Leucaena

An attractive salary package will be negotiated to reflect skills and experience.

Application addressing the above-mentioned requirements, including a CV and the details of two referees emailed to michelles@lsarecruit.com.au