

Roma Feedlot is a 4000 head capacity Feedlot, located near Roma Qld.

We are currently looking for several new team members, a livestock supervisor and Pen riders

Livestock Supervisor

Required experience; Livestock staff supervision. All aspects of cattle management, from receival to dispatch. Ability to run an induction and hospital treatments as required. Daily pen riding. Responsibilities will also include cleaning and maintenance of stock facilities.

Must be computer literate and have had extensive experience with Stock ID.

The person we are looking for will have meticulous attention to detail and have a passion for lotfeeding, the ability to handle stock in a quiet and calm manner.

The successful applicant will need to provide a suitable horse and saddlery for the position which will be maintained by the feedlot. Single staff accommodation is available on site.

Pen Riders

Required Experience: Must have experience in cattle feedlot industry

Duties: Pen riding. Cattle health management, inductions, receival and dispatch and must have experience with Stock ID cattle management software.

The people we are looking for must have the ability to handle stock quietly and have a passion for lotfeeding.

Single staff accommodation is available on site

Applications should include a cover letter and Resume, including 3 phone references, to the Manager Roma Feedlot E-Mail: admin@romafeedlot.com.au

For further information regarding the above positions PH:0419 156 200