

Integrity Australia is a licensed livestock export company. Established in 2016, Integrity Australia specializes in the export of breeding livestock from southern Australia to a growing list of international customers. The business is aligned with providing customers with high quality breeding livestock by accessing our trusted and established Australian livestock supply chain.

With growth in our business Integrity Australia has created a new and exciting position within our small team.

Export Operations Officer

The role will report to the Export Operations Manager and be responsible within a supported team environment for the execution of livestock shipments. The role will involve aspects such as livestock procurement, data capture, protocol facilitation, quarantine process, shipping and discharge. It is intended that the role will develop a person highly capable in every aspect of the live export supply chain.

Responsibilities :

- Develop & Manage Stakeholder Relationships
- Livestock Procurement & Handling
- Animal Husbandry & Welfare Operations
- Information Recording
- Data Management
- Process Management
- Contract Execution
- Financial Processes

The Person :

- The necessary application and accountability to deliver results
- An ability to work under pressure, manage time & meet deadlines
- Committed to the provision of high attention to detail
- Passion for and knowledge within the agricultural industry
- Some experience in livestock handling and husbandry applications
- Excellent knowledge in the MS suit application in particular excel
- Excellent communication and relationship building skills
- Some understanding of production and welfare standards for livestock
- High attention to detail
- Ability to follow instruction in an unsupervised environment
- Preparedness to travel both domestically and internationally
- Driver's Licence essential

Our Offering :

- Join a small dedicated, highly capable and experienced team in an autonomous environment
- Training in a supported environment
- A competitive salary
- Other employee benefits
- Flexible location

Please apply via email inclusive of CV to – dominique.carter@integrityaustralia.com.au

Applications will be accepted until Close of Business on Friday 7 June.