

RURAL BUSINESS SUPPORT

INCORPORATING RURAL FINANCIAL COUNSELLING
SERVICE SA/NT

BOARD VACANCIES

Rural Business Support (RBS) is seeking two Board Members for appointment at its AGM in October 2019.

RBS assists agricultural businesses with strategic business management, educational programs, research and rural financial counselling in South Australia and the Northern Territory.

The board of RBS provides strategic leadership and governance to the organisation. Board members are appropriately skilled with a range of qualifications and experience. It is an essential requirement that the applicant has GAICD qualification or equivalent experience.

Applicants with demonstrated skills and experience of primary production or agribusiness are strongly encouraged to apply. Strong connections and knowledge of regional South Australia or Northern Territory are also desirable.

The appointments are for a three year term, subject to government funding.

Board members are remunerated and reasonable expenses and travel costs will be reimbursed.

To apply, please request a position description and information pack from the board's Executive Assistant, Christina Garden, on 08 8249 7577 prior to sending your email application addressing the selection criteria to: executiveassistant@ruralbusinesssupport.org.au

All interviews will be conducted in Adelaide.

Supported by the Australian Government and the Governments of South Australia and Northern Territory.

Applications close COB Friday 26th July 2019
