

Livestock buyer

Australian Meat Group is a leading Beef Processing Company situated in Dandenong, Victoria.

We are looking for a highly motivated Livestock buyer to join our Livestock Procurement team.

The role will be full time, with the Buyer ideally based in northern Victoria or the New South Wales Riverina district, reporting to the Livestock Manager. Fully maintained company vehicle provided for the role.

Key functions of the role include:

Attending and purchasing Cattle at regional livestock exchanges.

Coordinating supply of livestock to Abattoirs.

On farm inspections of livestock.

Promotion of AMG Farm Assurance, Angus and Organic programs.

Maintaining and grow current supplier base.

Procurement of feeder cattle as required.

The successful applicant will have:

Current Driver's license.

Livestock industry experience.

Capacity to work both independently and as a team.

Excellent communication, planning and negotiation skills.

Be willing to travel distances with occasional overnight stays.

Ability to assess livestock to required Company specifications and standards.

Email applications to: employment@amg.com.au

Only shortlisted applicants will be contacted.