

Bull Production Specialist Rennylea Angus

The manager of Ellerslie Park and Hope Farm works in the team of 5 people at Culcairn with responsibility for the young, weaned stock from the Bowna properties, plus 500 sale bulls per annum through to their departure. The area under management is 1,000 ha with high value livestock.

This is an opportunity to work in a dynamic genetics operation in Angus cattle. Rennylea Angus is a performance herd where all the cattle are described by their phenotypes and genotypes and recorded on Group Breedplan. This position reports to Anthony Corrigan.

Key Tasks

1. Operational and Tactical Planning (50%):
 - a. Operational management for two on property sales per year, selection of bulls and animal husbandry programme leading up to sale days. Despatch and liaison with delivery.
 - b. Operational management of contract, lease and private treaty sales and despatch.
 - c. In consultation, setting staff work programmes, liaison and advice, induction of new staff including OH&S.
 - d. Timely maintenance of vehicles, improvements
 - e. Capex programme, annual improvements planned and provisioned in budget through consultation.
 - f. Source materials, machinery, vehicles.
2. Animal Husbandry (30%)
 - a. Schedule and oversight animal husbandry events for heifers leading up to and including joining.
 - b. Schedule and oversight all husbandry events including preparation for sale of bulls.
 - c. Assistance with reproductive work in the cow herd as required.
3. Client Liaison (20%)
 - a. Year around client contact, problem solving and advice, working with Anthony to meet client needs
 - b. Pre sale marketing
 - c. Post sale delivery of bulls and follow up

Key Skills

- Animal husbandry, cattle handling and assessment
- Communication with staff and clients
- Improving efficiency

Please ring Ruth Corrigan on 0400 302629 or Anthony Corrigan 0437 043443 to discuss further or email your resume' rennylea@bigpond.com