Queensland cattle buyer role

North Australian Cattle Company Pty Ltd is seeking an experienced cattle buyer for North Queensland to purchase livestock for the live export and meat processing trade. NACC will procure approximately 140,000 head in 2020.

The successful applicant will work closely with stock agents throughout Queensland and the Territory to purchase and select cattle that meets NACC's specifications. Should NACC ship out of the Northern Territory the successful applicant will also be required to manage they buy in the NT. As this role encompasses all northern Australia there will be a requirement to cover this large area. Ideally the successful applicant would be based in Townsville or Charters Towers.

NACC has a Shipping Coordinator in Townville who manages the day to day operations and logistics of our shipping program. They buyer will need to work closely with the shipping coordinator around deliveries, quarantine and customer requirements.

The position with NACC is a contract buyer role for which NACC will pay a dollars per head fee for cattle shipped. All costs associated with the role will be at the applicant's expense. This will also be an exclusive role, and should the applicant choose to accept the role they will be exclusive to NACC / SACC.

The successful applicant will need to provide proof that they hold the following documents –

- current drivers' licence and registered motor vehicle
- insurance policies for work cover and indemnity insurance
- able to supply a federal police clearance and upon successful employment gain a MSIC port security card
- Q Fever card

All applicants should send a cover letter and CV to the Managing Director of NACC.
