

Livestock Buyer – New England NSW

- One of Australia's largest meat processors and exporters
- Integrated red meat supply chain
- Excellent career development opportunity

OUR CLIENT

One of Australia's largest meat processing, export and marketing companies. They have their own extensive supply capabilities and are a major participant across red meat both domestically and globally.

ROLE

Our client requires an experienced individual to lead livestock procurement activities across the New England region and its surrounds. The role will plan, coordinate and implement strategies to achieve procurement targets across the organisation. This will be achieved through establishing and maintaining professional relationships with graziers, livestock agents and feedlot operators through programs of ongoing communication and marketing activities to ensure effective representation across the region.

REQUIREMENTS

Essential:

- 5 years' experience within the rural agribusiness and beef supply chain sector
- A strong understanding of beef processing requirements
- Good knowledge of livestock management systems
- Current driver's license is essential.
- Demonstrated ability to manage your own workload and work as part of a geographically dispersed team
- Good administrative and computer skills and a highly organised approach to managing workloads
- Demonstrated interpersonal skills including customer relationship management skills

LOCATION AND REMUNERATION

Full time permanent role based in the New England region of NSW. An excellent salary package commensurate with experience to be offered to the successful candidate.

INTERESTED?

Send your application to resume@agri.com.au

For more information or a confidential discussion about this role –
Please call Dave Compton on 02 9223 9944.