About Hancock Agriculture

Hancock Agriculture, incorporating S. Kidman & Co Pty Ltd and Hancock Prospecting Pty Ltd Services, is a world-class agribusiness with over 30 properties across Australia spanning 10 million hectares. With a long and proud history in Agriculture, we are one of the country's largest producers of beef with a herd of over 320,000.

Hancock Agriculture provides you a career in an exceptional organisation you can be proud of, whose culture includes, "happy healthy cattle are the best cattle". Using practical technology, we are leaders in responsible safety.

We are currently seeking to appoint experienced, highly motivated and energetic Head Stockpersons to join our operations in 2021 at the following locations:

- Durham Downs Station – Channel Country, SW QLD
- Narylco Station – Channel Country, SW QLD
- Nerrima Station – West Kimberley Region, WA
- Ruby Plains Station – East Kimberley Region, WA

About the Roles

Reporting to the Station Manager, the Head Stockperson will assist with planning, implementing and evaluating the livestock program and related station operations. Key duties and responsibilities include:

- Supervising and undertaking effective and timely herd management including mustering programs;
- Accurate recording of stock numbers for the livestock information system;
- Providing leadership, supervision and training of stock camp team members;
- Maintaining and developing facilities and improvements;
- Monitoring and responding to land and environmental issues; and
- Assisting with purchasing.

Successful applicants will possess excellent communication skills, have a high level of leadership & supervisory experience, be competent in the use of horses and motorbikes, and experienced in handling cattle in a quiet and controlled manner. A proven ability to keep accurate livestock records, a good grasp of technology and computer literacy and ability to promote and maintain safe work practices and the highest animal welfare standards is essential. A current Drivers Licence is required (HR to MC licence desirable). Motorbike licence preferred or be willing to obtain.

These positions offer excellent opportunities for both established Head Stockpersons and experienced Leading Hands/Stockpersons looking to take the next step in their career. Remuneration will be commensurate with experience. Onsite accommodation and quality home-cooked meals are provided, along with training, career development and advancement opportunities in our widespread organisation.

To apply for these special job opportunities and join an exciting, industry leading Agribusiness, please email a cover letter and current resume to careers@hancockagriculture.com.au quoting reference number BC-HS-VAR-2020 and the location of preference.

Please note: You must have the legal right to live and work in Australia to apply for positions with Hancock Agriculture or S. Kidman & Co.
