

ACTON CATTLE COMPANY

Tel: (07) 474 686 15

Email: actoncattleco@gmail.com

Now Hiring: Station Cook

We are looking for an honest and motivated station cook to join our amazing team in 2021.

If you love cooking, people and you have a passion for creating wholesome and healthy meals, Millungera Station could be the place for you! Join us on our outback property with a family atmosphere.

Acton Cattle Co are a family-based business near Julia Creek in North West Queensland. The property "Millungera" is a beef cattle breeding station, with other cattle properties within the company being elsewhere in QLD.

Station Cooks Duties:

- Keep a clean and tidy kitchen and dining area
- Prepare meals for breakfast, smoko, lunch and dinner.
- Offers a creative menu with a variety of foods
- Estimates expected food consumption for food and maintains stock.
- Assist with food and stores orders
- Communicates with owner and manager
- Any other ad hoc duties

Skills:

- Good hygiene and food safety practices
- Be comfortable to cooking for up to 20 people
- Good organisational skills,
- Able to operate a variety of kitchen equipment
- Creativity
- Interpersonal skills
- Effective timekeeping
- Excellent verbal communication

The position is a fulltime permanent position and we offer a competitive day rate and leave entitlements. The accommodation is a private airconditioned double room and a separate bathroom/laundry area. No dogs.

Start Date 25th January 2021