

Glen Arden Cattle Co is a scalable beef cattle business that systemises ethical, low cost beef production to create and attract further opportunities for growth.

Our mission is to build a business that pushes the boundaries of agriculture whilst maintaining an innate culture of objective decision making at all levels, a business that provides growth and fulfillment for all involved.

LOCATION

587 Glen Arden Rd, Roma QLD

ROLE: -

An exciting position is available for a passionate person to join this family orientated business in the role of experienced station hand. The successful applicant needs to be proactive, show initiative, be a responsible and respectful team member who is keen to further their industry skills and experience. We are looking for an honest, reliable, dedicated person with good communication skills and who has a genuine passion for agriculture.

All mustering is done with side by side buggies and quad, and a large emphasis is placed on A grade working dogs.

Reporting to Management, you will work well in a high performance team, have a positive attitude, a passion for agriculture, and take pride in your presentation and work. The successful applicant will also possess the following attributes –

- Experience with and have a passion for cattle husbandry and procedures.
- A calm nature with livestock with LSSH experiences ideal.
- Carry out duties in a planned way - following work schedules, organising materials and equipment prior to commencing work.
- Ability to operate or willing to learn on property heavy machinery operation such as Grader, loader and dozer.
- General knowledge of pastures and cropping systems ideal but not a necessity (forage budgeting)
- Manage plant and equipment, maintain animal welfare and WHS standards at all times.
- Be an effective communicator, be fit and active.
- Possess a good range of practical skills for general property maintenance, fencing, welding, chainsaw, vehicles, and water/lick runs
- Drivers licence and own transport (on farm work vehicle provided)

Included is:-

- Airconditioned private accommodation
- Certainty of full time remuneration proportionate with experience
- Training, career development and advancement opportunities in our widespread organisation
- Couples or singles welcome to apply with flexibility of role for partner

Applications, with references, should be sent to email - john@gacco.com.au