

Station Cook

This position is suited to an energetic individual enthusiastic to join our team at Bulloo Downs Station, Thargomindah, SW Queensland.

Your key duties will include but not be limited to the following:

- Provide breakfast, lunch and dinner for approximately 6 – 8 people, 6 days a week;
- Maintaining a happy, tidy and clean kitchen;
- Responsibility for gardening including: watering, mowing, fertilising, pruning and pest control;
- General cleaning of storeroom and visitor's cottage when required

The successful applicant will possess the following skills & attributes:

- A passion for cooking;
- Previous experience in a similar role;
- Great communication skills;
- Happy to work and live remotely;
- A proactive, positive and energetic attitude;
- Must be physically fit and able to cope with the Channel Country climate;
- Driver's licence essential

We can offer you:

- Air-conditioned accommodation;
- All meals;
- Attractive remuneration dependent on experience.

This position will suit someone happy to work and live remotely. A can-do attitude and the ability to jump in and do whatever is required to get the job done is essential, including assisting the Station Manager as required.

Applicants please present your resume with 2 or more work references who are contactable. Please note only applicants who meet the brief will be considered and contacted if short-listed.

Apply to jobs@gibsonpastoral.com.au or call 0427960709