

Livestock Operations Supervisor

Summary

Macquarie Wagyu is a diverse agricultural operation situated at Macquarie Downs which is an hour south of Toowoomba on the Condamine River. We breed, background, feedlot and market fullblood and crossbred Wagyu cattle for the ultimate beef taste and flavour.

Enterprises at Macquarie Downs consist of livestock, feedlot and broadacre crop farming and covers a total of almost 10,000 hectares. The business is constantly evolving and we seek to employ someone that has a positive attitude and is supportive of change and progression for themselves and the business.

The position of Livestock Operations Supervisor (Paddock) is a hands-on position for an experienced person in this field who has developed observation skills, attention to detail, and is able to undertake the day-to-day operations of the Livestock enterprise. Macquarie Wagyu is one of the leading Wagyu herds in Australia and breeds approximately 700 full-blood wagyu females annually, and backgrounds the progeny to feedlot entry.
