

OVERSEER / FARMHAND (FULL-TIME)

An exciting opportunity to provide general farmhand labour and livestock husbandry (sheep) support into two highly-progressive farm businesses in the southern Monaro region of NSW.

Applicants must have a passion for working in the livestock production sector - associated skills are highly desired. A strong work ethic, honesty and reliability, as well as the capacity to work autonomously and as part of a team are essential.

A generous employment package (including on-farm accommodation and other benefits) will be negotiated in accordance with the successful candidate's experience and performance in the role.

Applicants must be currently residing in Australia, hold a legal work permit and a manual vehicle drivers licence.
