

Livestock Supervisor

Wanderribby Feedlot will be under new ownership in November and is seeking a Livestock Supervisor for its 8000 head licensed feedlot at Meningie, adjacent to the beautiful Coorong and one- and three-quarter hours from Adelaide.

The role will include but not be limited to -

- 1) Hands on management of all Feedlot Cattle Inductions and Exits
- 2) Liaise with Clients and Transport operators when required
- 3) Coordinate a small group of staff.
- 4) Operate a Feedlot Computer Program (Possum Gully) Training provided
- 5) Help manage a backgrounding operation.
- 6) Be responsible for monthly Induction drug inventory stocktake.
- 7) Assist in other varied feedlot tasks
- 8) Be part of the weekend feeding roster.

The successful person must be prepared to work in accordance with the company's OH&S and Animal Welfare guidelines, have forward planning ability, Be competent with technology. Have a sound knowledge of cattle husbandry.

The successful applicant will report direct to the Feedlot Manager.

This position has potential for advancement in the company.

Salary will be negotiated according to experience.

This is a full-time position.

Applications close 20th Oct 2021

Resumes should be directed to –

Ron Nankivell

Feedlot Manager

Wanderribby Past Co

Email ron@wanderribby.com.au

Or Phone 0428 751 372