

PROPERTY SUPERVISOR

Iwasaki Sangyo Co is seeking a Full-Time Property Supervisor for our grazing department which is set on a portion of the 22,000 acres property.

To be successful in this role you will need to have the necessary skills to work with livestock and perform labour intensive duties in harsh weather conditions.

You will need to have the availability to work a 7 day a week rotating roster, including weekends when required.

To be considered for our team you will need:

- At least 5 years proven experience in mustering, slashing, cleaning and yard work
- Conduct asset maintenance, fencing, water systems, yard/paddock maintenance, and weed control with poison control license
- Up to date QFever vaccination and Certificate in First Aid or be willing to obtain.
- Machine operation and Wagyu experience would be an advantage.
- Maintain, build and continuously improve the facilities on the premises
- Strictly follow all policies and procedures, including workplace health and safety laws, policies and procedures.
- Responsible for the maintenance and improvement of the Yard Paddock facilities with the assistance of the Grazing Director.

Applications close on the 30th Nov 2021.

Please forward applications with resume and references to:

t.suda@capricornresort.com

An immediate start is available for the right candidate who possesses full working rights in Australia.

*Only successful candidates will be contacted for this vacancy.