

Station Hand | Sheep and Wool

- Entry level position in Riverina area of NSW
- Training provided
- On-farm accommodation is provided

THE PROPERTY

A large family-owned enterprise which runs a breeding flock of 20,000 poll Merinos 120km north-west of Hay in the Riverina area of NSW. The owner is passionate about the industry and is committed to encouraging and training young people who are enthusiastic about developing a career in sheep and wool production.

THE POSITION

A vacancy has arisen for a Station Hand to join the team where training is provided and personal contribution is valued. Duties will include all aspects of merino sheep husbandry as well as mustering and yard work.

The successful candidate will be encouraged to have their own working dogs and will be assisted in training them.

On-farm, air-conditioned accommodation is provided with own room and shared kitchen facilities.

THE REQUIREMENTS

- An interest in livestock and an eagerness to learn;
- Prior experience in the sheep industry or growing up on a farm would be distinct advantage;
- A passion to develop a career in the sheep and wool industry.

This position is best suited to a young person seeking to develop their knowledge and experience in the industry.

TO APPLY

Please send your application to resume@agri.com.au or for more information about this position, call Brett Price at Agricultural Appointments on 0422 269 415.

For more exciting opportunities, follow Agricultural Appointments on LinkedIn or visit www.agri.com.au

