

Senior Stockperson

Tasmania

The property 'Malahide' is located in the Fingal Valley, currently carrying approximately 50,000 Merino sheep and approximately 2,500 beef cattle. The business is expanding its livestock enterprise following the recent reversion of plantation forestry land back to pasture and is seeking an experienced stockperson to take on the role of Senior Stockperson to assist the Farm Manager as the business expands its workforce as part of its increased livestock production.

Reporting to the Farm Manager, the Senior Stockperson will assist with planning, implementing and evaluating the livestock program and related farm operations.

The successful applicant will meet the following criteria

- Proven livestock assessment and husbandry experience
- Ability to manage pastures intensively
- Demonstrated leadership and supervisory skills
- Proven ability to keep accurate livestock records
- Previous experience in a similar role
- Able to promote and maintain safe work practices and the highest animal welfare standards
- Hold a current Driver's licence (HR to MR licence desirable)

A large four-bedroom residence is provided on the property, which is ideally situated close to both primary and secondary schools. A salary package commensurate with experience will be negotiated.
