

Career Opportunity

Trainee Livestock Buyer

About Us

For more than 75 years we have been producing the best Aussie beef, feeding, and enriching lives around the world. If you want to be part of a food business that is country at heart but global by nature, then this might be the perfect role for you.

Make the most of your existing skills and gain access to a range of training, development, and career progression opportunities. Our family values mean our business starts with our 4600 employees across Australia – people like you – all working together to create sustainable and brighter futures for all.

When you join us, you will also be part of an important regional community.

About the Role (two vacant positions)

Teys Australia has a vacancy for a Trainee Livestock Buyer to join the talented and passionate Livestock teams at either our Naracoorte or Rockhampton processing sites. This opportunity would suit someone who has grown up and been around the cattle industry and who is keen to develop their livestock buying skills within an innovative, global business.

Initially, as a trainee you will be supported by a team which draws on a rich agricultural and animal science background and a lifetime of experience supporting producers to become an autonomous buyer within Teys' staffing structure which has buyers located throughout the eastern seaboard of Australia.

Initial key accountabilities include:

- Purchase necessary livestock for processing at the designated site using both over the hooks and sale yard methods
- Liaise with Livestock Manager and General Manager Livestock regarding appropriate sourcing, trend activity and forecasting supply
- Establish and maintain productive relationships with producers, agents, and the community
- Prepare and maintain accurate records.

This is a full-time opportunity offering a generous salary and company benefits within a Teys-passionate team working for an Australian company that supports the growth of its people

About You

It is essential that you have the following:

- Openness to learn from Livestock Managers and buyers to purchase suitable cattle to process.
- Knowledge of and a solid reputation within the cattle producer community
- Customer-first mindset
- Motivated and organised with a hands-on approach
- Confident communicator within a team environment
- Respect and care for animals and their welfare
- Current Drivers Licence.

Desirable:

- Good computer literacy skills and ability to pick up new systems
- Direct saleyard exposure.

To Apply

If you are looking for an opportunity to work in a fast-paced, collaborative environment within a growing business offering excellent career development and opportunities, we encourage you to APPLY by sending an up-to-date resume and cover letter outlining your suitability to one of the following SEEK adverts:
