

RURAL PATHWAYS PROGRAM

Thomas Foods Feedlot and Rural form part of the agricultural division of Thomas Foods International, one of Australia's largest family-owned businesses since 1988. As a family business, we're driven by our strong values. Safety, animal welfare, and sustainability are all a part of the fabric of the business and are integrated into everything we do.

Pathways Overview

Thomas Foods prides itself on supporting and encouraging careers in the Australian Agricultural sector. The Pathways Program is targeted at recent school leavers that are seeking an entry level opportunity with a leading South Australian agricultural company. Over the 12-month program, the successful applicants will be exposed to and gain experience across several production systems. The objective is at the completion of the program the individual is well equipped to continue into a successful career with Thomas Foods in the agricultural industry.

Feedlot Program

Our Feedlot, located at Tintinara SA, is currently expanding to a capacity 30,000 head of cattle which will continue to create exciting opportunities to join our close-knit team in a role that will truly make an impact in the community. The industry leading facility prides itself on leading animal husbandry and welfare practices. Successful applicants will be exposed to livestock, feed mill, administration, maintenance, and machinery operation departments.

Rural Program

Thomas Foods Rural is a multi-site aggregation spread across the upper and lower southeast of South Australia. Utilising modern farming practices, Thomas Foods Rural is diverse in its production with main enterprises consisting of prime lamb production, cattle breeding and trading, centre pivot irrigation and fodder production. Participants will gain experience in all areas outlined as well as general farm duties, work health and safety requirements and maintenance.
