

RED MEAT LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATE, VICTORIA

Exciting opportunity to join Coles' dynamic and progressive livestock procurement team

Coles is seeking a Red Meat Livestock Associate with a desire to develop and build on their industry knowledge working in livestock procurement with learning opportunities across meat production, retailing and product development.

This is an exciting new position (Red Meat Livestock Associate) with core responsibilities in beef and lamb livestock procurement while engaging and developing long term strategic supplier relationships, delivering a consistently high-quality eating product for our retail customers and continuing to evolve with best practice sourcing and animal welfare. This is a progressive role for an individual with a passion for red meat production from farm to shelf and a willingness to participate in all areas of growth and development across Coles' meat business is necessary.

The role will be based in Victoria requiring inspection of stock on farm and in the abattoir as well as attending livestock markets. You will work with our suppliers and Coles' livestock and commercial teams, to deliver a consistent product that will make a real difference to our customers. Knowledge and experience in animal welfare, drivers of meat eating quality, stakeholder management and negotiation skills, and an ability to engage with suppliers to interpret production feedback are all essential.

This is a contract position (ABN required), reporting to the Coles National Livestock Manager Red Meat. This position will be based in Victoria. Service Fee package will be negotiated to attract the highest calibre of candidates.
