

Job Title: Live Export Consignment Officer

Location: Darwin, Northern Australia

We are a well-established live export company operating in Northern Australia and have an exciting opportunity for an energetic person. This position will be based in Northern Australia, with the requirement for domestic travel across the North of Australia.

The successful applicant will be responsible for managing the daily operations of the company's live export business including inventory management, livestock handling and tracking, liaison with customers, the overseeing of cattle in pre-quarantine through to loading of the vessel and other duties as required.

To be successful in this role, you will need to demonstrate the following:

- Previous experience in livestock handling and live export an advantage
- Proven ability to manage and resolve customer service queries
- Knowledge of industry best practices in animal welfare, biosecurity, and hygiene
- Ability to work independently and autonomously, as well as part of a team
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Knowledge of ASEL or willingness to learn
- Knowledge of state and territory regulations
- Sound knowledge of Excel
- Polite with a great attitude
- Ability to work with constant changes
- Capability to work weekends and during the night

If this sounds like you, please apply now and we will be in touch to discuss the position further. This is an excellent opportunity to join a growing and successful team with ongoing support and career development opportunities.

What's in it for you:

- Competitive salary.
- Career progression
- Comprehensive training and support provided to ensure success
- Friendly and supportive team environment with a focus on great attitude and work life balance

If you want to join a great team and make a real difference in the live export industry, we'd love to meet you! Apply now!

info@frontierinternational.com.au