Operations Manager | CENTRAL WEST NSW

Full-Time Position

Looking for an exciting opportunity in the agricultural industry? We are seeking an Operations Manager to join our team at Glencoe Station in NSW, approximately one hour north of Dubbo. This full-time position offers the chance to be part of an industry-leading Agribusiness.

About the Property

Caigan and Glencoe Stations are breeding properties for Hancock Agriculture's 2GR pure bred Wagyu cattle. Nestled in the Central West of NSW, our team at 2GR enjoys the best of nature's offerings, with access to the Castlereagh River at Caigan and breathtaking views of the Warrumbungles at Glencoe. Working on these properties means being part of an environment where we strive to produce the world's best Wagyu beef while prioritising animal welfare, embracing new technology, and promoting sustainable farming practices. We foster a friendly, inclusive, and respectful work environment where every team member is valued and contributes to the success of our operations.

About the Role

The Operations Manager contributes to the overall property operations including cattle breeding and raising and associated practices leading to pasture management, cropping and fodder production programs. Duties such as handling and monitoring of livestock, ploughing, planting, fertilizing, watering and harvesting of hay, silage and grain, machinery operation and maintenance, general property maintenance and repairs, and land management

To thrive in this role, you will need:

- Demonstrated experience in the movement, handling, and processing of cattle using calm and controlled methods.
- Competent operation of various farm machinery/equipment and carrying out basic servicing and maintenance
- A strong work ethic and a firm commitment to safety protocols are vital. Our team values individuals who prioritise their safety and that of their colleagues while maintaining a high standard of work.
- Good understanding of animal welfare practices
- You should be able to communicate effectively with team members and maintain accurate records, ensuring efficient coordination and documentation of farm activities.
- While the role requires the ability to work independently, you should also be an effective team player.
- Hold a current Class C Drivers Licence (HR Truck and Tractor licence an advantage)
- A genuine passion for the beef industry and an enthusiasm for working in a rural location are key attributes. Your dedication and love for the industry will inspire and drive your commitment in your role.

What we Offer You

We are committed to providing our team members with a rewarding and comfortable experience. In return for your dedication and hard work, we offer competitive remuneration and the chance to immerse yourself in the natural beauty of Central West NSW.

Comfortable living space in on-site accommodation.

Become part of a team that values collaboration, mutual support, and a strong sense of community. We foster a positive work culture where everyone feels respected and valued.

About Hancock Agriculture:

Hancock Agriculture is a renowned agricultural company, encompassing Hancock Pastoral, Wagyu Operations, and S. Kidman & Co. Pty Ltd. With a rich history in agriculture, we manage over 18 properties across Australia, covering a vast land area of 3.49 million hectares. As one of the country's largest producers of Wagyu and commercial cattle, we maintain a herd of over 150,000.

As a vertically integrated farming operation, we oversee every step of the process, from breeding and backgrounding to grain feeding and sales of the finished product. This approach ensures the highest standards of animal husbandry, traceability, and quality assurance. At Hancock Agriculture, we are proud to offer our team members the unique opportunity to be part of an organisation that upholds these exceptional standards.
