

Pastoral Station Hands/Ringers, Pilbara region – WA

Experienced

- Competitive rate in the Pilbara region
- Immediate start for right candidate
- Meals and Accommodation provided (on site living)

About the Role

A unique opportunity for experienced Station Hands/Ringers to work at Rio Tinto's iconic Pastoral Stations, Hamersley and Rocklea Station.

Collectively, these stations stretch across approximately 770,000 hectares in the heart of Western Australia's breathtaking Pilbara Region. These stations are in close proximity to Tom Price, Paraburdoo and Newman respectively, nestled either side of the beautiful Karijini National Park and 3 hour drive to the coast of Karratha. Breed of cattle is Droughtmaster

You will be required to:

- Participate in the mustering and processing of livestock by vehicle and motorbike
- Conduct regular inspections and maintenance of farm infrastructure, including fencing, gates and water troughs, to ensure they are in good working condition
- Operate and maintain machinery and equipment safely for various tasks including land management and animal transportation

About you

To succeed in this role, you will require:

- Experience within the Cattle & Pastoral Industry
- Demonstrated experience in mustering and processing cattle
- Sound knowledge and skills relating to vehicle, plant, fencing, water points
- Demonstrated previous experience operating 4WD's and Motorbikes
- Desirable but not essential - experience operating Trucks, Loaders, Bobcat, Forklift
- Current manual drivers license
- Able to undergo a Pre-Employment Medical including drug and alcohol testing

What's in it for you?

- Strong pipeline of upcoming / ongoing work
- Very competitive rates
- A culture driven work environments
- Single contractor quarters with private ensuite
- Communal kitchen, dining & rec room

TO APPLY

If you think you have what it takes to succeed in this role, send your resume to Jennifer.lee@riotinto.com

We will only accept applications from applicants who have current working rights in Australia. We cannot assist with visa or sponsorship applications. You must also have a current full driver's licence