

Job Vacancy

Assistant Farm Manager

Full time or Part time by Negotiation

We are seeking a dedicated and highly motivated candidate to join our clients' thriving bullock finishing enterprise in South Gippsland.

Our clients are industry leaders and have been established in South Gippsland for nearly 50 years. Their focus is on producing premium beef, while engaging in sustainable farming and carbon abatement practices. This is a great opportunity for the right candidate to grow and develop their career in premium beef production, including purchasing and marketing strategies, high quality pasture development and best practice farm management.

The role:

- Work closely with the farm manager/owner to develop and plan farm programs.
- Assume responsibility in the manager/owner's absence.
- Supervise livestock, grazing and pasture management.
- Operate and maintain farm machinery.
- Contribute to general farm maintenance, fencing and infrastructure.
- Liaise with contractors.

Key attributes:

- Practice low-stress cattle handling techniques and be committed to animal welfare
- Eagerness to learn and grow and be innovative and technologically adept.
- Adhere to safe work procedures in accordance with OH & S policies.
- Passion for and commitment to the environment of the property.
- Ability to take development opportunities and increasing levels of responsibility as they arise.

The position:

- Salary negotiable, commensurate with skills and experience.
- Accommodation can be found for the right candidate.
- Close to beaches and National Parks.
- Bus to local Primary and Secondary schools.
- Availability of local amenities (supermarket, medical centre, hospital) within a half hour drive.
