Due to a retirement, we are now searching for a Stockfeed Manager with good ruminant nutrition skills.

Role

This role will be responsible the stockfeed manufacturing, sales and diet formulation, as follows:

- Manage the stockfeed process from raw ingredient procurement through to delivery of end product. Stockfeed products include grain, grain mixes, mineral licks, liquid feeds, hay, proprietary stockfeed and wholesale purchased stockfeed;
- Forecasting of seasonal product purchasing;
- To expand the customer base at Belyando's through the provision of quality service and advice and by maintaining and promoting services which meet the current and anticipated needs of those customers;
- Provide exceptional customer service in store and on farm, answering questions, and offering product recommendations;
- Be responsible for all product formulation within nutritional guidelines;
- Ensure that all safety and compliance regulations and processes are followed both on and off-site, including, but not limited to, workplace health and safety, road safety, property biosecurity, and personal safety;
- Manage quality control and traceability.

Requirements

- Degree in Animal Nutrition, Beef Production Systems, Agriculture or equivalent;
- Minimum 5 years management experience, preferably in manufacturing or stockfeed;
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills;
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team;
- Full driver's license required as travel is an essential part of the role;
- Experience in, or understanding of, Central Queensland beef production systems;
- Physically fit and able to perform tasks such as lifting, moving stock, and standing for extended periods;
- Positive attitude, reliability, and a strong work ethic.

Remuneration and Location

The remuneration is very attractive for this role and fully reflects the crucial role that this person will play within the business. Generous salary plus accommodation on offer. Location is in the Central Queensland region.
