

Boning Room Supervisor

WAMMCO International

Katanning, Albany & Great Southern WA

Full time

About the business

The Western Australian Meat Marketing Co-operative (WAMMCO International), Katanning Processing Plant is seeking the services of a suitably qualified person to fill the role of Boning Room Supervisor

The Katanning Processing Plant is situated 300 kilometres southeast of Perth in the Great Southern Region and is Western Australia's largest lamb processor and exporter.

About the role

To co-ordinate the attainment of Boning Room production objectives in the most hygienic, efficient and safe manner as specified by the Boning Room Superintendent / Divisional Manager

Job tasks and responsibilities

- Effective control, supervision, technical induction and training of all leading hands and employees in the Boning Room
- Ensure DAFF and AUS-MEAT standards are maintained
- Maintain good and effective Industrial relations with employees
- Being proactive in developing job rotation systems for all Boning Room personnel

More specified duties outlined upon interview.

Skills and experience

Mandatory

- Minimum 3 years experience in Export Boning, Slicing or Cutting
- Thorough knowledge of DAFF and AUS-Meat regulatory standards
- Excellent communication and negotiating skills, both verbal and written
- Evidence of well developed leadership and team building skills

Desirable

- Qualifications, or progress towards such, to the Meat Industry
- First Aid certificate
- Knowledge of applicable current legislation relating to Occupational Safety and Health, Export Control Act and the Australian Standards
- Interest with keeping up to date with relevant management techniques
- Computer Literacy

Application

- You are welcome to send any resumes or queries to marc@wammco.com.au.
- Please be prepared to undergo a physical medical should your application be successful.
- Only those shortlisted will be contacted
- Applications close COB 20th May 2025.