

Property Manager

Lovely property with executive style homestead with pool

Located on 20kls from Scone; the Horse Capital of Aust!

Scone School bus stops at front gate

Outstanding opportunity for a capable beef cattle Manager wanting a career with autonomy, in beautiful location & wonderful facilities for a raising a family.

Our client requires a suitably experienced beef cattle Manager for their 3,000 acre cattle grazing property 20 klms from Scone on tar sealed road.

Currently carrying 300 Angus breeders & 200 weaners, the role will require a 'hands-on' person to manage the property independently, utilising their own initiative from all aspects, as the long- term owners do not reside in the immediate area, however they easily contactable by phone.

Over the last 8 years, the current Property Manager has done an excellent job of implementing a successful select Angus breeding program, buying quality Angus heifers and Stud Angus bulls to improve the herd.

You must have:

- excellent animal husbandry skills
- an in-depth understanding of grazing management practices
- skills to prepare and sow both summer and winter forage crops
- the ability to communicate effectively with Company management, caretakers, contractors and other business associates
- sound record keeping and basic computer capabilities; and
- be a practical, organised and results driven Manager
- Hold necessary ChemCert AQF 3 Accreditation
- Current Drivers License essential; MR or HR truck license desirable
- own horses & dogs
- excellent references Q Fever vaccination is mandatory

Attractive salary package negotiable including expansive executive style homestead with 5 bedrooms & 3 bathrooms plus "granny living quarters" & swimming pool.

Scone school bus at front gate.

The property is located at Blandford, 20 klms from Scone; easy commute to Tamworth, Newcastle or Sydney.

Extensive shedding & stabling also available for the Manager's use.

Our client appreciates the Manager or his family may have equine interests (such as campdrafting, Pony Club etc.) & wish to keep & work their horses (5 maximum) on the property & travel away at weekends to attend such events. They may also be interested in showing cattle, with the facilities being ideal for show preparation.

Ideally the successful applicant would be available to commence mid to late June; however, we are prepared to wait for the "right" person!

A Police check and a pre-employment medical including drug & alcohol testing, as well as reference checking will form part of the recruitment process.

Applications for this outstanding opportunity should include a resume with a brief cover letter outlining your skills as per the above criteria & be emailed quoting Reference no. 3057BC to: executive@emeryhr.com.au
