

Livestock Agent

Exciting Opportunity to Join Our Family Business

We are on the lookout for a dedicated and experienced Livestock Agents to become part of our expanding family-run business in the South West & Great Southern Area of Western Australia. This is a permanent, full-time position offering the right candidate the chance to work long term with genuine prospects for partnership within the company.

Responsibilities

- Maintain professional relationships while building a robust portfolio of both new and existing clients.
- Identify and pursue new livestock sales opportunities to drive business growth.
- Develop and nurture relationships with key industry partners, including processors.
- Be flexible to work weekends during peak seasons.
- Willingness to travel as part of the role.

About You

- You're passionate about making a positive impact for your clients and the local community.
- You have a genuine interest in livestock and a strong enthusiasm for livestock sales.
- You're motivated by achieving sales targets and personal success.
- You're not afraid to get hands-on and put in the hard yards to build new business.
- You possess excellent customer service skills and can foster strong relationships with both prospective and current clients.
- You're detail-oriented, resilient, and ready to take on challenges.

All applications will be treated with the strictest confidentiality

If this sounds like your next step, please express your interest by emailing us at delaneylivestock@bigpond.com.