POSITION ATTRIBUTES:

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will need to have the following core attributes:

Excellent Written and Oral Communication Skills

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will be communicating with the public, high profile clients and internal stakeholders whilst building strong relationships across the Willinga Pastoral Companies. These relationships include both internal and external clients of Willinga Pastoral.

Team Player

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will demonstrate teamwork skills within the Equine and Stud Infrastructure and across all the Willinga Pastoral teams. This includes no office politics by always showing equal respect to your colleagues and team members. As the Gardens and Grounds Manager will have daily interaction with the public, the Gardens and Grounds Manager will need to develop and foster positive internal and external relationships to manage ad-hoc duties and tasks as directed by the Management team.

Delivery of Service

The Gardens and Grounds Manager must ensure the delivery of service to the public, sub-contractors and clients are attended to in an efficient, timely and professional manner. This involves the constant feedback on progress to the stakeholders to ensure the delivery of service is of a high standard.

Presentation and Image

The Gardens and Grounds Manager must be professionally presented in the supplied Willinga Pastoral uniform and have a clear understanding that they are always representing the business in a professional manner.

Organisational and Time Management skills

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will have the responsibility of ensuring that all administration tasks i.e. coding of invoices and filing are completed in a timely manner to ensure data and costs are recorded effectively.

Willinga Pastoral Values

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will positively follow the Willinga Pastoral Values to ensure the culture is maintained as a family owned, positive and professional business.

Feedback

The Gardens and Grounds Manager will participate from time to time in a feedback process such as 360 degree or a formal review as part of their professional development. The Gardens and Grounds Manager will use this feedback to understand development and learning opportunities associated with their role within the business. Annual reviews will be conducted with your direct manager and Head of Human Resources as well as encouraging live feedback at any time you or your manager feel necessary during your employment. It is expected that the Gardens and Grounds Manager engage in feedback discussions in an open and constructive manner and work together with their manager on genuine opportunities to improve performance.

Confidentiality

The role of the Gardens and Grounds Manager requires handling of sensitive information of all clients of Willinga Pastoral. It is expected that the Gardens and Grounds Manager will not divulge any confidential information to any third party or employees unless directed to do so by the Head of HR or Managing Director. Refer to the Confidentiality Information Clause (Schedule 2) of your employment contract.

Self-Starter

The role requires a level of autonomy in that the Gardens and Grounds Manager provides support to the Station Manager, colleagues and other stakeholders and will not have to require ongoing direction. That is, the Gardens and Grounds Manager will understand the position and create opportunities to better the role with fresh ideas and innovative ways of undertaking it.
