

Sales Representative –

Mount Garnet QLD | Travel across Far North and Western Queensland required

Do you have a passion for agriculture and a talent for building strong client relationships? We're looking for someone who thrives in a fast-paced environment but also understands the value of face-to-face connections with clients in the livestock industry.

Join our team as a Sales Representative and become the vital link between our office operations and our valued clients across the Agricultural community in Far North and Western Queensland

This is an office-based position located in Mount Garnet, however regular travel to regional and remote areas of Queensland will be required to support our clients and provide tailored livestock product and service solutions.

If you enjoy getting out from behind the desk, working with producers, and helping improve livestock performance and profitability, this could be the opportunity for you.

Be part of the people helping feed the nation.

About the Role

As our Sales Representative, you will work closely with our clients and Senior Nutritionist to understand individual needs and develop personalised livestock supplement solutions.

You will represent our brand across Far North and Western Queensland, building strong relationships with livestock producers and supporting them with practical, reliable advice and service.

Key responsibilities include:

- Managing and growing an existing client base
 - Developing new business opportunities
 - Working with our nutrition team to create tailored supplement programs
 - Travelling to client properties and industry events
 - Providing excellent customer service and ongoing support

What We Provide

- On-the-job training with an experienced, down-to-earth team
- Company vehicle
- Accommodation and meals covered when travelling
- Work phone and laptop provided
- Above-award wages
- Long-term career opportunities within a growing company

- Ongoing training and further education for dedicated employees

About You

- Current driver's licence (required)
 - Proven sales experience (essential)
 - Agricultural or livestock industry experience (highly regarded)
 - Strong communication and relationship-building skills
 - Self-motivated with a positive, can-do attitude
 - Able to work independently and as part of a close-knit team
